Pasta Sheeter RMN220 by Imperia

Thickness adjustment knob

Optional cutter attachment

The Imperia RMN220 table top pasta sheeter produces a 210mm (8.25") wide sheet of pasta that can be used to make tagliatelle, lasagna, and sheets for stuffed products like ravioli, tortellini, and cappelletti. Pasta sheet thickness is adjustable between 0-5mm. Optional cutter attachments mount on the RMN220 and allow you to cut your pasta sheet into popular pasta shapes including tagliatelle, fettuccine, and pappardelle. An included transmission arm drives the cutter attachment via the electric motor.
